

The North Somerset Theatre In Education Company

Did you know that North Somerset has its own Theatre In Education (TIE) Company?

Actionwork TIE is a leading theatre in education company with over 20 years experience at the cutting edge of theatre, education & training.

In addition to touring all over the UK we serve Weston-super-Mare, Portishead, Banwell, Nailsea & Backwell & all the rural areas of North Somerset.

Our specialities include PSHE related productions, creative based curriculum work, developing projects with teachers & students, working in conjunction with the Local Authority & Town & Parish Councils, INSET Training, touring directly to schools, Secondary & Primary school work, involving young people in creative productions, fusion arts - including organic theatre & dance & poetry & storytelling & music & creative action, follow-up creative arts based workshops, powerful & innovative & vibrant & colourful productions, incorporating & partnering with a range of national & international practitioners & organisations, flexibility & sensitivity to the needs of our clients

Experience & history includes working closely with North Somerset Local Authority, delivering shows & creative workshops to schools in North Somerset including town & country venues such as Weston-super-Mare & Bleadon, INSET Training for teachers in North Somerset, national TIE tours on subjects including anti-bullying, drug misuse, teenage pregnancy, relationships, racism, sexism, homophobia & other issues that affect young people, primary to secondary school creative transition projects, providing drama & music & other creative skills training, national workshop & creative tours with the Department for Education & Skills (DfES), & international TIE tours to Asia & Africa & Europe.

Our future plans include the development of creative dialogues & partnership projects with schools & the youth service & local community organisations & programmed annual theatre in education tours across North Somerset. Actionwork TIE is also currently working with local partners to form a creative arts centre in Weston-super-Mare for youth & the community.

If you would like more information, would like to start a dialogue with us, or would like to discuss possible collaborative projects then please ring us on 01934 815163 or write to Actionwork, PO Box 433, Weston-super-Mare, BS24 0WY or e-mail admin@actionwork.com