

Actionwork 'Dealing with the Issues' Interactive Workshop Tour 2007

Following the success of the Silent Scream theatre tour, Actionwork will be giving Bristol and Somerset schools the chance to be involved in highly acclaimed creative, interactive workshops.

Actionwork is a North Somerset based Theatre-in-Education company, with over 20 years experience of dealing with issue based work. We would like to invite your school to be one of the select Bristol and Somerset schools to benefit from our latest creative programme.

We will be providing a 2 hour educational, energising and fun-packed workshop.

- Select your workshop topic from the following: assertiveness, bullying, racism, homophobia, violence, drug misuse or relationships
- Workshop tailored to specific key stages and the needs of your school
- Supports curriculum led PSHE work
- Work with up to 300 students
- Interactive and highly creative
- Free lesson plan and DVD
- Professional actors and facilitators
- Discounted rate for Bristol and Somerset of £299
- Dates available from 5th-25th May

We look forward to the possibility of visiting your school. Please contact us if you have any questions.

To book your place or for more information please ring Vashti at Actionwork on 01934 815 163

www.actionwork.com